Tributes are paid to tragic Luke, 15

TRIBUTES have been paid to a teenager who died after collapsing during a rugby match while playing for his Hagley school.

Luke Chapman, aged 15, a student at Haybridge High School had been playing in an under-16s rugby game in Kidderminster when the tragedy happened.

His headteacher and friends have expressed their shock and sadness at his sudden and unexplained death last week.

Caroline Hoddinott, headteacher of Haybridge High School said: "We are all terribly shocked and upset by the tragic death of Luke Chapman. Luke was a much-loved son, grandson, friend and student and we will miss him very much."

A Facebook page - RIP Luke Chapman - has been set up in tribute to the youngster, who not only played for his school but also for Old Halesonians Rugby Club, based in Wassell Grove, Hagley.

Ex-England and Bath full-back Iain Balshaw, who now plays for Biarritz in France tweeted: "Thoughts and prayers go out to the friends and family of Luke Chapman at such a terrible time."

Worcester Warriors' former England fly-half Andy Goode said: "Thoughts go out to all family and friends of Luke Chapman after such a tragic accident. 'Let's beat Newcastle on Friday in his honour.'"

An inquest into the teenager's death was opened and adjourned on Monday by the Birmingham coroner.

Saint's Day free parking

SHOPPERS will be able to park for free in Stourbridge to coincide with St George's Day celebrations. Charges will be suspended in the town on April 21 when a civic procession takes place.

It is expected to cost Dudley Council £1,600 in lost revenue.

MOSAIC MOVED AS BULLDOZER LOOMS

By Heather Large

A £50MILLION redevelopment project in Stourbridge has reached a key stage with an historic mosaic being carefully removed from the Crown Centre paving the way for the building's demolition.

The piece of art will be restored to its former glory by Tesco over the coming months. It has been dug up from the floor of the centre which is being demolished as part of work to create a new supermarket.

The historic mosaic is removed from the floor of the former Crown Centre

It is the final work needed before the Crown Centre can be completely knocked down.

Contractors began clearing the interior before starting to rip out some of the old shop units.

The rest of the centre will be demolished in the coming weeks.

Project manager Mark Glover said the mosaic had been covered by a protective plastic panel before contractors cut around it and lifted it out of the ground on Monday afternoon.

Cracks in the decoration will be repaired and it will then be incorporated into the new development.

The mosaic was moved to the Crown Centre in 1996 from the old cinema building when demolition started in preparation for the Wilkinson's store to be built.

Members of the township council led a campaign for it to be protected and moved to a place in the town where it could be appreciated.

Timepiece

A commemorative clock which celebrates the town's glassmaking and manufacturing heritage, was removed last week.

The timepiece will be kept in storage until the centre is completed.

The clock has a rotating feature which features a model of the Stourbridge Lion locomotive, the first train to operate in the United States.

Mr Glover said: "We know these are two things that people have been interested in preserving so it is an important process."

The final footbridges linking the multi-storey car park in Bell Street to the centre were torn down yesterday, ahead of the car park itself being blown up next month.

Last weekend, two other bridges were removed. It now means all bridges linking the car park to shopping centres have been removed.

Shauni bids for national stardom

Folk singer Shauni Foxall, 19, of Stourbridge, who is hoping to hit the big time

A MUSICIAN is dreaming of stardom when she takes to the stage to perform as part of a national talent search.

Shauni Foxall, from Albemarle Road, Stourbridge, first picked up a guitar when she was seven.

But now she is hoping to be a hit with judges and fans at the Live and Unsigned event on April 29.

The national contest searching for the best unsigned talent has reached its live finals stage.

Shauni is taking part in the Brighton regional leg where she attends the nearby Brighton Institute of Modern Music.

"I'm really excited about performing and I should have family and friends who will be coming down," said the 19-year-old of Albemarle Road who has recently been writing and performing with her own band.

Prayers at school for soldier in explosion

OLD SWINFORD School, in Stourbridge, held a special assembly after the death of a former pupil and soldier in an Afghanistan bomb blast.

Captain Rupert Bowers, from Wolverhampton, became a father last month while home on leave.

The 24-year-old, who was honoured for his bravery in action, was killed by an improvised bomb while leading a patrol to clear the area of insurgents in Helmand Province on Wednesday.

Cpt Bowers from the 2nd Battalion, The Mercian Regiment (Worcesters and Foresters) was working alongside an Afghan security forces patrol when he was killed in the blast.

Old Swinford Hospital head teacher Peter Jones said: "Rupert was an outstanding student all the way through his career. He was completely dedicated to the school and was natural leader."

"We have been devastated since the news came in."

"The whole school community sends their deepest condolences to the family and we want them to know that they are in our prayers."

Cpt Bowers' lived with his 25-year-old wife Victoria and newly-born son Hugo in Oakham, Leicestershire.

His parents Patrick and Jane live in Shrewsbury.

Restaurant gets the nod

A BID to transform a former careers advice centre in Stourbridge into an Italian restaurant and takeaway has been given the go ahead despite objections from nearby businesses.

Council planners have approved proposals for the old Connexions base in High Street which shut in March last year.

But neighbouring shops had complained about the scheme saying there were already enough food outlets in the town centre.

Puppy love! How Carol's passion aids guide dogs

Carol Evans pictured 30 years ago with her first dog, Ruby, and her first litter

GUIDE dog supermum Carol Evans has raised around 250 puppies to help blind and partially sighted people over the past three decades.

And the grandmother-of-six has her hands full at the moment with the latest litter of puppies born to her dog Clare in recently.

Mrs Evans had always had a passion for dogs but 30 years ago decided to get involved helping to train up puppies for the charity Guide Dogs.

Her first dog, a pure-breed Labrador called Ruby, became a much-loved family pet and lived at their Stourbridge home for 16 years.

Mrs Evans has also cared for descendants of Ruby including her daughter Joni, granddaughter Callie and great granddaughter Imogen. "I love dog breeding and doing

By Andrew Turton
it for Guide Dogs, I know that the dogs will be well looked after and loved," the 57-year-old said.

"They are all individuals and my grandchildren love to see them all when they come around to visit."

Most guide dog puppies are born in volunteers' homes with support given from the Guide Dog's National Breeding Centre in Royal Leamington Spa.

Mrs Evans, who lives with her husband, Michael, has looked after eight guide dog mums over the years.

She said: "It is such a rewarding experience as you have the joy of the young dogs and then the joy of them going off to greater things in the future."

Funding boost for supplier

A RAIL industry supply firm in Stourbridge has secured extra funding to start exporting products, after receiving support at a leading business event.

More than 100 businesses have received advice and access to funding at events held by the Black Country Local Enterprise Partnership.

SCG Solutions Ltd, based on the Gainsborough Trading Estate, in Lye, says it was one of the latest firms to benefit from the scheme.

Firm director Steve Marsh admitted he had been struggling to secure finance from high street banks. But after attending the meeting held at the Copthorne Hotel in Brierley Hill, he was able to strike a deal.

Mr Marsh says he will be working with firm Central Finance, who helped his company raise the funding needed to enter the overseas export market.

"The main benefit of attending the event is that you're able to make contact with many types of finance providers all at the same time," Mr Marsh said.

Founder of cancer unit is given top civic honour

Unusual plants take centre stage

NATURE-LOVERS are invited to a talk hosted by the Stourbridge group of Worcestershire Wildlife Trust.

Bridgnorth-based Roy Mantle will be speaking about the common and more unusual plants which grow in the region. Group chairman John Homer said: "We're really looking forward to discovering more."

The talk takes place on March 30 from 7.30pm at the Eco Centre, Ridgewood High School, Park Road West, Wollaston. Admission is £2.

THE founder of a leukaemia and cancer unit that cares for patients across the region has scooped the Mayor of Dudley's Civic Award after winning an online public vote.

Ros Bratt-Wyton, aged 64, helped set up the Georgina Unit at Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital in 1998.

And she has since helped raise millions of pounds through the appeal fund, and still continues to spearhead fundraising today.

Mrs Bratt-Wyton, who was a specialist nurse at Russells Hall said it became her "goal" to introduce cancer facilities at the site.

Four other Civic Awards were also presented by the Mayor of Dudley, Councillor Michael Evans, for sport, the arts, community spirit and education.

Mrs Bratt-Wyton, of Hurst Hill, said: "I'm very proud and it is an endorsement of all the great work that the unit does."

"As well as treating patients we have had two weddings on the ward, sent a dying father and his family to Florida and paid for a teenager with cancer to see Manchester United play in Europe."

"We have always tried to do what other hospitals don't."

The other winners were badminton coach Maureen South, 69, of Stourton, who clinched the Duncan Edwards award for sport, and Margaret Noakes, 68, a retired music teacher from Sedgley, won the Cedric Hardwicke award for arts.

The Frank Foley award for community spirit went to chairman of Dudley Canal Trust Vic Smallshire, while The Thomas Attwood award for education winner was woodwork teacher Geoffrey Attwood, of Wollescote.

More than 8,000 votes were cast by members of the public via the council's website - more than 10 times the number posted last year.

Opera couple singing from same hymn sheet

Husband and wife John and Sue Franklin from Gladstone Road, Stourbridge, get ready for their anniversary show

A COUPLE have been hitting the right notes as part of a world opera premiere to mark a Silver Jubilee.

Birmingham Opera Company is 25 this year and to celebrate, members John and Susan Franklin, of Gladstone Road, Stourbridge, are taking part in a special production of Life is a Dream.

The pair married 41 years ago after meeting at Birmingham University, where they studied chemistry. They have a shared love of music and will both be in the singing chorus of the opera, which runs at Argyle Works in Digbeth until Saturday (March 31).

The couple will be supporting an international cast.

John, aged 69, also plays the flute and has been singing in choirs and opera groups since the age of nine. He said: "It's a privilege to work with an internationally-acclaimed director Graham Vick, who has such a unique approach to opera which brings a wide variety of people from the community together with world class opera singers."

John who used to work for British Aerospace in Kidderminster, is also principal flute and chair of the Birmingham Philharmonic Orchestra.

Life is a Dream will be his fourth Birmingham Opera Company production, with retired chemistry teacher Susan, 63, joining him in all four.

Weight and see – 50st goes as mothers slim

Claire Lamsdale, front left, with her son William, aged two, health trainer Tim Ryall and Rebecca Flower and her grandson Mackenzie Flower-Rudge, three, and other mothers from the group who have lost weight

A GROUP of Black Country mums have lost more than 50 stones after joining forces to lose weight.

Around 30 women who attend the Mummy Mornings at Westfield Merry Hill Centre, Dudley, have each shed an average of more than a stone since starting the NHS weight loss programme nine weeks ago.

But it has given one slimmed-down mum a sizeable problem – a new wardrobe of clothes given to her by style guru Gok Wan in a makeover three years ago no longer fit.

"I was in size 14s then but now I am in size 10," said Mandy Moore, aged 39, of Oakfield Road, Wollescote, Stourbridge.

"Since joining the Mummy Mornings weight loss programme I have gone down from 12st 6lb to 10st 8lb and I feel 100 per cent better.

"But most of the clothes I was given in Gok Wan's fashion fix three years ago are now too big, so I am having to get them tailored down."

Mrs Moore, mother of Erin, five, and 11-year-old Logan, said: "Even so, I'm glad I've lost the weight."

NHS Dudley's Heath Exchange trainers have, since January, been attending the Mummy Mornings, held every Tuesday in the Eat Central area of Merry Hill.

Trying

On Tuesday of last week they saw just how well they were doing by trying on "fat suits", loaded up with weights to show how they looked before they slimmed down.

Next month there will be a prize for the "biggest loser" – the mum who has lost the most. Health trainer Tim Ryall said: "We are helping them to realise that by making small changes they can lose weight."

Elizabeth Hill, who is the 2,000th member of the club, with son Owen

Those swinging doors for Wolves bosses in the 60s

THE 60s is usually looked upon as a great decade by all who were there, though it is said that if you can remember the 60s, you weren't actually there.

This is not true of Wolves' supporters, however, because, in between the two glory decades of the 50s and the 60s, when Wolves won cups and competed at the highest level in the League, the 60s was an unhappy, up and down time.

Winning the FA Cup in 1960 was the swansong of the glorious team which was the most successful in the club's history.

Billy Wright retired in 1959, and was followed by many of those stars, only Ron Flowers soldiered on through the new decade.

The great Stan Cullis tried to rebuild the team with youngsters for the 1962-3 season, and seemed to have succeeded, the first match being the famous 8-1 victory over Manchester City, the start of an 11 game unbeaten run, but it was not to last.

The team ran out of steam and finished 5th, and Cullis was sacked in September 1964, near the start of a season when they finished 21st.

The new manager, Andy Beattie, could not prevent relegation the following year, and he too lost his job.

The new man appointed to rescue the club was Ronnie Allen, who brought in some of the players who became Wolves' legends, David Wagstaffe, Phil Parkes, Derek Parkin, Mike Bailey, and, above all, Derek Dougan.

After two years in Division Two they were promoted back where they belonged in 1968, but the team struggled once more in the top flight, finishing 17th.

Things were no better the following season, and shortly after a humiliating 6-0 home defeat to Liverpool, in which Alun Evans, recently transferred from Wolves, scored two goals, Allen was also sacked.

In November 1968 the directors appointed former Ipswich manager Bill McGarry, with Sammy Chung, later to replace him as his team coach. McGarry was a disciplinarian in the style of Cullis.

He recruited Jim MacCalliog and Hugh Curran and the team finished 13th in 1970.

They were on their way back to the glory days, perhaps not as great as the 50s, but silverware and European football soon followed.

The Swinging 60s were over, and Wolves supporters were grateful for that.

Paxman can keep his sneering

IT'S A Shame that Paxman has missed a golden opportunity to show he is more than just a brain with the ability to rave at university students for their ignorance and likewise at politicians.

His somewhat flippant take on the British Empire with all of its faults and all of its achievements in shaping the modern world is extremely poor and his final comments after viewing an excerpt from Gipping Yarns and describing the whole concept as 'absurd' summed up his shallow presentation.

I dare say next week, he will be in his element when discussing slavery and the Chinese opium trade. Surely a man of his intelligence should have the nous never to use 21st century norms as a yardstick when making judgements.

You cannot take events out of their historical timeframe. His comments on India the previous week showed a total lack of depth. Does he not understand that this was an age of empire building?

Britain just happened to gain the ascendancy. In the case of India, if it had not been the British, it would have been the Portuguese or French and later, in the so-called "Great Game", the Russians. Similarly, North American colonies would have been French.

One does not need to be a "my country right or wrong" Brit to see that many good things in the world are directly attributable to the empire and also eg. as in the Middle East conflicts that there is a flip side.

Sorry Paxo, please use your intellect rather than your sneers.

Support for local town and its stores

EVERY little helps or so a certain supermarket chain say. But this is not true certainly as far as they are concerned, because what they give you in one hand, they take back with the other.

When will people realise by shopping around you can get branded goods at a fraction of the price.

Although much is said about Dudley Town being rundown, my husband and I do most of our shopping there at much lower prices than supermarket prices. As far as Dudley is concerned every little does help.

So come on support your local towns and forget the greedy supermarket who are not satisfied with selling food, but sell everything thus taking trade from lots of shops. No wonder towns are rundown.

OAPs have had to work for pensions

THANK you Mrs P A Jordan for putting the case for OAPs so knowledgeably. It only remains for me to inform Lindsey Phillips that "in those days" we left school at 15 and at that time it was only the truly "gifted" school leavers who progressed to colleges and universities. The majority of us left and immediately entered full-time employment, often from the next day. There were no "years off" then. It was work or no money, our parents weren't able to subsidise us.

I am fully aware of the shortages of jobs at present and sincerely hope things change for the better soon. But, please do not keep "slagging off" the senior citizens. Without us being able to spend the fruits of our latter years, hard-earned savings the hotels would have fewer guests; coach companies would not be in business; theatres would close and travel agents would be hard pressed to sell their holidays. Also, because of the bus pass we are able to get to the out of town shops. Lindsey, I hope I at some time in the future I shall read about you becoming an MP, as least you had the interest to make a point (although, misguided).

MRS M SOUTHALL, Charles Road, Halesowen

Rail link needed more than city status

SO DUDLEY has lost out on its bid for city status. Well perhaps on reflection it is not bad thing.

Yes there is a lot going on at the moment in Dudley regarding redevelopment.

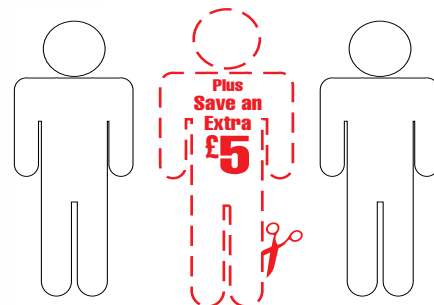

We have a zoo and the Black Country Living Museum being joined by a new roadway. Years ago we also had a railway station.

Now my question is to our councillors, why not consult with the government and network rail about rebuilding a railway station where the original was? People I am sure would willingly use it to Birmingham than travel on the 74 bus.

A journey of about 50mins if you're lucky. The station I am sure would benefit Dudley more than city status.

School set for mission

MORE than 70 students as well as teachers from Ridge-wood High School, Stour-bridge, have set off on a mission to Gambia.

They will take with them many useful items which will be donated to villagers of Kitisilo and Half Dye, as well as leading a variety of activities in local schools.

They have the support of fellow pupils, teachers and parents who have given goods such as art and craft tools, pens, crayons, footballs, hair accessories, small toys, early reading books and wool for Project Gambia 2012.

Anxious wait facing MPs over boundary shake-up

MPs face an anxious 18-month wait to find out whether they will need to compete against each other to keep their seats.

Consultation on an overhaul that could see the number of MPs cut from 650 to 600 is about to end.

Three MPs in the Black Country could find their seats abolished if a new electoral map is created. The Boundary Commission for England is accepting comments until April 3. It will come back in October next year with the formal proposals to Parliament for a vote.

In Sandwell, MPs could have an equal claim to each other's constituencies. A new Wednesbury seat would be made up by half of West Bromwich East and half of West Bromwich West. The rest of West Bromwich West would come under Dudley East.

Equal

Mr Bailey, who would have an equal claim to Wednesbury and to Dudley East, said: "I have not yet decided where I will stand. I have the highest regard for both Tom Watson and Ian Austin and if this situation does arise I know we shall all conduct ourselves in the appropriate manner"

Dudley South MP Chris Kelly said the review will cut the cost of politics by reducing the number of MPs and the size of the Commons and save £12 million a year.

Tory James Morris would see his Halesowen and Rowley Regis seat split between Stourbridge and Dudley South – both now Tory-held.

Driver is banned for flouting alcohol laws

A HEATING engineer who popped out to get his partner heartburn medicine was caught behind the wheel at nearly twice the legal alcohol limit by an off-duty officer, magistrates heard.

Mark Hill was driving his Peugeot van "very slowly" along Dudley Road, Pensnett, at about 3.15am on March 11, said Mrs Maxine Jarrouse, prosecuting.

The 30-year-old, of Hazel Road, Kingswinford, was overtaken by the off-duty officer but then started driving "aggressively", she told Dudley Magistrates Court.

When he pulled into a nearby BP petrol station he was arrested. He registered 66 microgrammes of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood. The legal limit is 35.

Mr David Wilkins, defending, said Hill had been asleep but was woken by his partner who had suffered recurring problems with heartburn since the birth of their one-year-old child.

Job

He said his client, who admitted drink-driving, could lose his job if he was banned.

But magistrates disqualified him for three years, fined him £400 and ordered him to pay a £15 victim surcharge and £85 costs.

Time of their lives

Maria Lodge, as Laura Stratton, Stephen Clark, as Tuto the waiter, and Leo Price, as Glynn Stratton

A PLAY exploring three complex relationships has been performed by a popular Black Country drama group.

Time of My Life by Alan Ayckbourn is known as one of the writer's "time plays" as it switches between eras to look at three couples.

It was staged by Stourbridge Theatre Company at the town hall in Crown Centre last week.

It begins with Laura Stratton's 54th birthday at Calvinu's restaurant, where she is joined by her husband Gerry whose business is facing cash-flow problems, and their sons Glyn and their partners.

Theatre company member Barbara French said described the play as very entertaining.

Hospital changes cut agency nursing costs

HOSPITAL bosses in Dudley have slashed their wage bill for agency nurses by more than 90 per cent, new figures reveal. The Dudley Group of Hospitals paid out around £4.9 million in 2009/10 and £360,000 during the current financial year so far.

The hospital trust, which runs Russells Hall and the Guest hospitals in Dudley and the Corbett, Stourbridge, had pledged to reduce costs as it continues to shave millions of pounds off its budget. Chief executive Paula Clark said a "staff bank" of 400 nurses and clinical workers, already employed by the trust and who are paid overtime to cover shortages, had been set up.

"During the financial year, 2012/13, The Dudley Group is planning to make a saving of approximately £9.7m of our total income budget," she said. "We introduced our own staff bank in 2010 which has reduced our reliance on external nursing bank and agency staff."

Siblings together after a life apart

A FORMER Stourbridge grandfather has met a half-sister he never knew he had.

Mike Bedrock, of Bewdley, met Brenda Sibtain for the first time, 68 years after she was given up for adoption.

Mike has a twin sister, but 12 years ago he discovered he also had a half-sister. He only managed to track her down this January. She now lives in Northampton and has two adopted children of her own.

When they met, it was like they had never been apart, said Mike. For Brenda, who was born Linda, the meeting was magical.

The story started 12 years ago when Mike's twin sister Janet Withe was going through some family papers.

Discovery

Mike, a 67-year-old retired coach driver of Coniston Way, explained that his sister found a birth certificate in the name of Linda Bedrock for November 1943.

Mike remembers the day his sister phoned him to break the news.

"She said 'Are you sitting down? We've got a sister'."

Their father died shortly afterwards. But other family members revealed that their mother Nell had been a Wren during the Second World War, and had had an affair with a sailor. Mike said: "My dad, who had been in Palestine, came home on leave. They told him the baby was in the house, and he told my mum 'it's the baby or me'."

"My dad had an aunt in Birmingham, and one of her friends had just lost her daughter, and she adopted Linda."

Mike, who has also lived in Stourbridge and Halesowen, said: "We spent years trying to trace her. We didn't know what to expect, but when we met in January it was like we had never been apart."

Together - Mike Bedrock and Brenda Sibtain, brought together at last

Twins - Janet and Mike Bedrock, aged three, unaware of their half-sister

Talk topic was canal navigation

KINGSWINFORD
 & DISTRICT HISTORICAL

THE speaker at the March meeting was Dr Peter King and his subject was "Andrew Yarrington and the Stour Navigation".

After a delayed start due to audio visual problems Dr King told of Andrew Yarrington's early life. He was born in Astley Parish in Worcestershire around 1616. After being a shop assistant he became involved in mills and forges in the iron industry and after spending time in the Army surveyed the River Stour with a view to making it navigable from Stourbridge to Kidderminster.

An Act of Parliament had been passed in 1662 to make the river navigable to enable coal and iron to be carried to the River Severn.

In 1664 Yarrington embarked on a scheme to make this possible from Stourbridge to Kidderminster.

Canal navigation eventually overtook the viability of the river.

The next meeting is on Monday April 2 when Dr Paul Collins makes a return visit to talk on "Dudley Living Memories".

All are welcome at 7.30pm at the Community Centre, High Street, Kingswinford. Further details from Brenda Arthur on 01384 291593 or Ron Julian, 01384 295848.

Colleagues take it to the bridge

Kidderminster and Stourbridge Soroptimists take part in the "Join Me on the Bridge" campaign

SOROPTIMISTS around the world celebrated International Women's Day on March 8.

This day celebrates the economic, political and social achievements of women past, present and future. Kidderminster Soroptimists marked the occasion by standing with Stourbridge club members on the stone bridge in the grounds of Himley Hall for the "Join Me on the Bridge" campaign.

The global campaign has a theme of peace and development.

On Saturday 10 March, six club members attended the spring Midland Arden regional meeting hosted by SI Coventry at Wolston.

KIDDERMINSTER SOROPTIMISTS

Regional president Ruth Longville welcomed members from the 13 clubs in the region which stretches from Birmingham West to Hereford.

Wendy Friar was a very inspiring speaker. She instigated the Black Country Food Bank, based in Halesowen, a volunteer-run centre with a Christian ethos which opened in 2006. For more details about the club, email kidderminstersorop@gmail.com or visit <http://sigbi.org>

Council's recycling bid for government funds

DUDLEY Council is planning to bid for a multi-million pound government grant to increase waste collections and boost recycling rates.

About £250 million has been made available by the Government to support councils in providing weekly domestic waste collections.

The local authority plans to roll out a full recycling service if it secures around £2.3m from ministers.

Sandwell and Wolverhampton councils have also signalled interest in applying for money.

A new fleet of recycling collection vehicles will be bought with the cash by Dudley Council, if successful, while schools would receive a recycling service for collecting paper and cardboard.

About 11,000 homes have already been part of trial kerbside collection scheme in Dudley since October 2010, with participation numbers up to an average of 87 per cent.

In a report to council leader Councillor Les Jones, officers said the public response in the trial areas has been "excellent".

He added: "A full borough roll-out would eventually result in increased recycling income and a corresponding decrease in waste disposal costs, which would cover ongoing revenue costs at the end of the [three-year] grant period."

The council is currently working on its bid and successful authorities will be notified in October.

Oh deer, a bad hair day

Assistant curator Richard Brown with one of the male reindeer

Don't be stumped on fun

COMMUNITY organisations and traders are being invited to take stores at a fun day held at Stourbridge Cricket Club.

The club will be hosting stalls and a funfair at the War Memorial Athletic Ground in Amblecote high street on May 6.

THREE male reindeer at Dudley Zoo are having a "bad hair day" as they shed the fur covering their antlers. Visitors have commented on the soft fur hanging down from the animals' antlers. But staff at the zoo said it is normal and the reindeer will lose all of their antlers in just a few weeks time. They will then grow back. Assistant curator Richard Brown said: "It is nothing to worry about."

Perk up the patio by planting pots of fun

Out of the Blue ready planted mix for hanging baskets

PATIO pots and hanging baskets are an essential part of a modern patio.

Although we like to have some protective areas containing tomatoes and peppers, decorative flowers are the essential elements of patio gardening.

Plant breeders have been working hard over the years to provide us with a wide range of container flowers and easier ways to ensure perfect baskets and patio pots.

KinderPlanters, available from garden centres from April onwards, are pre-planted net pots that are ready to 'drop' directly into baskets and containers. Simply line the container with moisture control compost and drop in the planted net. Fill in compost around the root ball, water well and watch it grow. It's an ideal system if you are short of time or you don't have a clue on how to mix colours, plant types and foliage textures.

There are five collections with explanatory names such as Out of the Blue, Pretty in Pink, Firecracker, Fabulous Foliage and White Delight. Patio planting just got that little bit easier.

Tomatoes are another essential part

Suttons' Lizzano cascading variety of cherry tomatoes of patio gardening. This year I will be again growing a new cascading cherry variety Lizzano from Suttons in my raised bed.

Rooting

Last year I found that with the help of Miracle-Gro slow release plant food granules and a large rooting area a similar tumbling variety produced an excellent crop.

Also it's time I grew some hot chilli peppers for the kitchen. A recent introduction is Apache.

Living history in time travelling adventures

THE WEST Midlands has a rich history which has left an legacy of impressive buildings and sites to explore.

In Shropshire much of the heritage is drawn from the centuries of uneasy relations with their neighbours the Welsh. This legacy includes the remains of the Roman city of Wroxeter (some claim it became Arthur's Camelot after the Romans left) where a Roman villa has been recreated as part of a TV documentary. Nearby is the imposing Attingham Hall, where the picture gallery became the model for Buckingham Palace's gallery, and the romantic ruins of impressive Ludlow Castle and Wenlock Priory. The latter is in the village of Much Wenlock, where the modern Olympics originated and are being celebrated as part of London 2012.

Nearby Bridgnorth is the northern terminus of the Severn Valley Railway which steams along the beautiful valley via Bewdley to Kidderminster and includes the Engine House education centre at Highley.

In this area, Buildwas Abbey ruins and Dudmaston Hall grounds make great picnic spots. Near Craven Arms are picturesque medieval manor house Stokesay Castle, the Secret Hills Discovery Centre with its replica Shropshire mammoth and Acton Scott historic working farm, where Victorian Farm was filmed.

Ironbridge boats ten museums in the gorge, available via individual ticket or by a 12-month passport for all of them. The biggest is Blists Hill Victorian Town, which takes visitors back to the 19th Century.

Manor

Industry later moved to the Black Country and Birmingham where the Black Country Living Museum in Dudley gives visitors a taste of that sooty, chain-hammering, hard-working past. The Back To Backs in Birmingham city centre show how the workers lived, whilst the palatial ruins of Witley Court, near Stourport, hint at the opulence enjoyed by industrialists.

The Manders made Wightwick Manor, Wolverhampton, into a celebration of the 19th Century arts and crafts movement. Soho House in Handsworth was the elegant home of Birmingham industrialist Matthew Boulton and nearby the Museum of the Jewellery Quarter in Hockley is a time capsule for one of the city's great trades.

Another city landmark, Aston Hall, played a role in one of the country's defining conflicts, the English Civil War, as did Boscombe House and Moseley Old Hall, both near Wolverhampton. The religious persecutions leading up to that 17th Century conflict are reflected in the 'priest hole' hideaways at Harvington Hall, near Kidderminster, and at moated Baddesley Clinton, near Solihull, both Elizabethan treasures.

Conflicts of a recent era are remembered at the Royal Air Force Museum at Cosford, an aviation fan's must-see attraction housed in three huge hangars at the air base. It has a fascinating Cold War exhibition too and is free.

More than 70 historic aircraft to see at the Royal Air Force Museum at Cosford, plus a flight simulator

Thrill seekers head for theme parks and zoos

FAMILIES looking to take a walk on the wild side, whether that's white-knuckle roller-coaster rides or getting close to big cats, have plenty of choice in the West Midlands.

West Midland Safari and Leisure Park, between Kidderminster and Bewdley, has got both. The day out includes four-mile self-drive safari and 27-ride leisure park including Venom Tower Drop. A new attraction for 2012 is Penguin Cove, where visitors can watch the colony of Humboldt penguins explore their own beach or take a shower in their waterfall.

Dudley Zoological Gardens on Castle Hill, in the heart of the Black Country, has been transformed in recent years and in 2012 celebrates its 75th anniversary. Two new animal stars set to be a roaring success are Amur tiger Tschuna and Sumatran tiger Daseep. There's lots to discover in the 40-acre grounds of the historic (and supposedly haunted) ruined castle.

When it comes to castles, few are more impressive than Warwick Castle where The Castle Dungeon now hosts the vengeful Witches of Warwick. Merlin fans can experience The Dragon Tower and there are regular bird of prey displays and the trebuchet siege machine is put into action.

More than 50 rides and attractions ensure a busy day out at Alton Towers Resort in north Staffordshire. New for 2012 is Nemesis Sub-Terrar, a spin-off from the Nemesis attraction that takes the terror underground, and Ice Age The 4D Experience featuring characters from the hit films.

Adrenaline

Drayton Manor Theme Park, near Tamworth, is staging a number of Guinness World Record attempts to mark its 62nd year. This year also features a new 4D movie based on classic fantasy The Little Prince and live shows. For younger children there is Thomas Land, featuring the popular living loco and his friends, whilst thrill-seekers can head for the big coasters, including Ben 10 Ultimate Mission, adrenaline-pumping drop tower Apocalypse, stand-up coaster Shockwave, splashastic Stormforce 10 and the stomach-churning Maelstrom.

Hands-on, hi-tech displays can be visited at eye-catching West Bromwich town centre venue The Public, which is free admission, as is the equally iconic New Art Gallery in Walsall town centre. Both offer family craft events.

For those with a sweet tooth, Cadbury World at Bournville is a must and was visited by more than half a million chocoholics last year. Learn all about chocolate, particularly Birmingham's famous brand, and taste it too.

Jordan's date with Yvonne is put on hold when a former ED patient collapses in prison after being arrested for assaulting Lloyd. The incident threatens the pairs blossoming relationship as it becomes apparent one of them may be held accountable for the unwell man being left in a cell. Meanwhile, a 14-year-old girl gives birth at home, and her sister plants the unwanted baby in Jeff and Dixie's ambulance. Linda and Zoe later encounter the teenager while on a night out, and are quickly sobered by the realisation that she is haemorrhaging and in need of urgent medical attention. ### PERSPECTIVES: LENNY HENRY - FINDING SHAKESPEARE

ITV1, 10.15pm

In 2009 Lenny Henry made his debut as Othello at the West Yorkshire Playhouse; Henry's performance was hugely praised, and the production transferred to the West End. More recently he's starred in the National Theatre's acclaimed take on The Comedy of Errors. Not bad going for a guy who once claimed he had a deep-seated aversion to Shakespeare, especially his "gobbie-de-gook" language. Now Henry wants the rest of us to embrace the Bard, just as he's done, and he makes a start by hosting this documentary.

Period home next to Hall

DESCRIBED as an exceptional period home in the sought-after village location of Hagley, The Lindens in Hall Lane is on the market priced at £769,500.

The property occupies a fine position overlooking historic Hagley Hall parkland estate on the edge of the village, which offers a selection of individual shops and restaurants together with first-rate schooling and a railway station.

The Lindens is a handsome period home of great character with architectural features including impressive fireplaces, moulded dado rails and cornicing, sash windows and tall ceilings.

The drawing room and dining room are particularly light and spacious.

Both have fireplaces and wide bay windows overlooking the secluded frontage.

An everyday sitting room lies at the heart of the house, adjoining the kitchen breakfast room and also having French doors to the conservatory.

These areas, together with a generous formal breakfast room, make it ideal for family life, with the ground floor also having a study, utility room, cloakroom and garaging.

On the first floor are five bedrooms, the two main ones enjoying views over the parkland, and the principal served by a luxury en-suite. The house is approached through wrought iron gates onto a stone chip parking and turning driveway with access to the garaging.

The frontage is particularly impressive with a sculpted lawn dressed by borders and mature trees, while the rear garden is laid on traditional lines by a shaped sun terrace and bordered private lawn.

NOTICE TO READERS
Please be aware that when purchasing a puppy there are some simple guidelines you can follow to ensure that you are not purchasing from a Puppy Farmer:

1. Try to ensure you visit the puppy whilst it is still with it's mother.
2. Do not arrange to collect a puppy from any other location than that of the breeder.
3. Ensure that you are given any CD documentation, if pedigree.

Whilst Midland News
Association publications take great care to avoid publication of advertisements from Puppy
Farmers we cannot accept any liability should readers purchase from this kind of establishment.

AERIALS

TIPS OF THE WEEK

In these days of rising energy bills you may consider renewable technologies to save you money but before you invest in any renewable technologies you should always make sure your home is thoroughly insulated in order to make the maximum savings. Take advice from a local builder and The Federation of Master Builders. When starting a building project always use a contract which should include details such as start and completion dates, costs and payment plan. You can download a free contract from the Federation of Master Builders (FMB), the largest trade association in the UK construction industry, <http://www.fmb.org.uk/find-a-builder/free-contracts/>.

Protect your investment in your home by getting building work covered by an insurance-backed warranty, such as those offered by Build Assure. Build Assure offer a wide range of insurance products to suit your individual requirements and building project. Visit www.fmbuildassure.co.uk to find out more.

Nissan engine to provide power for the DeltaWing

GETTING involved in motorsport is a sure-fire way of boosting the profile of your production car range – which is why all the premium players have a finger in some sort of racing or rallying pie.

The trouble is, motorsport is a very expensive business, and blasting out fastest laps doesn't really chime with the greener approach to motoring that most manufacturers want to promote.

This week, however, Nissan announced its partnership in the DeltaWing concept,

By David Banner

an experimental race car that will be taking part in the Le Mans 24 Hours this year.

Strictly speaking, the DeltaWing won't be competing – it is not eligible for outright honours – but instead has been awarded a place by the Automobile Club de l'Ouest (ACO), the organisers of the legendary race.

It will run out of Garage 56, a spot reserved for experimental cars.

Nissan's major involvement is providing the motive power; its 1.6-litre direct-injection turbocharged engine, already seen in the Juke road car, will power the DeltaWing.

Tuned to 300bhp, it will still be providing half as much power as the front-runners, but crucially use half as much fuel.

Yet the advanced delta-wing aerodynamics (seen on planes such as Concorde and the Vulcan) promises outright lap times that will be on par with the LMP2 runners.

Paul Wilcox, senior vice president, Nissan in Europe, says: "Nissan is a very innovative, forward-thinking company prepared to take a risk or two."

"And exactly the same applies to Nissan DeltaWing. Our involvement in the project shows the boldness of Nissan from an engineering and innovation mindset."

The only shame is that the DeltaWing has to run under the banner of an experiment. It would be even more exciting if it were allowed to compete on level terms and secured an impressive finish, all the while using less fuel, fewer tyres and making fewer pit stops. That really would be an example of racing improving the road car.

The hi-tech end of motorsport is highly expensive

Van-tastic – the 2012 Citroën Berlingo comes with a choice of one petrol and four diesel powertrains

Berlingo leads the way in high cube van field

IN THE high cube F1 van segment (up to 2,500kg gvw), Citroën's Berlingo has beaten its rivals to gain top spot for the first two months of 2012.

During January and February, Citroën sold 1,345 Berlingos to take the leading position – and an amazing 24.1 per cent share – of this very competitive sector.

Scott Michael, Citroën's Commercial Vehicle Operations Manager, commented: "When the economy is facing a tough time and money is tight, its quality and low running costs that tempt buyers to invest in new vans. The Berlingo provides all the quality, low whole life costs and versatility the market demands, as its sector leadership shows in the opening months of 2012. Euro 5 Berlingo sales for January and February 2012 were 9.6 per cent ahead of the second place manufacturer, 11 per cent ahead of the third place contender and more than outsold the fourth and fifth place manufacturers combined."

"The Berlingo's market appeal will only get stronger when the latest updated models go on sale next month. The 2012 model Berlingo is even more economical and has even lower emissions, something which will really give buyers something extra to think about when choosing their vans in this highly competitive sector," Michael added.

The 2012 Berlingo range, which makes its CV Show debut in April, is the most versatile high cube van range available in the UK. It is offered, dependent on model, with a choice of three trim levels and five powertrains (1 petrol/4 diesel).

As part of this powertrain choice, the 2012 Berlingo includes the advanced e-HDi 90 Airdream EGS6, which features micro-hybrid technology with Stop & Start and a six-speed automated manual gearbox that delivers CO2 emissions of just 123g/km and combined cycle fuel economy figure of 60.1mpg.

All 2012 Berlingo panel vans are fitted, with Citroën's Trafficmaster Smartnav satellite navigation system.

Early cup setback spurs on under-12s

Boys
Stourbridge U10 1
Halesowen Colts 1
Stourbridge U12 3 Alveston 1
STOURBRIDGE fell behind in under a minute in this cup match but fought back to win.

Forest Falcons 2
Stourbridge U12B 8
Sam Green's treble helped Stourbridge enjoy a big victory.

Dan Blunt's free-kick put them ahead and Green then teed up Liam Hands and Josh Ball for the second and third goals.

Green headed in Blunt's corner to make it 4-0 by the interval.

Forest got one back in the second half before a Green solo brought his second before Nathaniel Connon set him up to complete his hat-trick.

Conner Fowkes and James Green rounded off the Stour scoring before the Falcons got one back.

Kenilworth Town 2
Stourbridge U123A 1 (aet)

Stourbridge U13B 5
Phoenix Utd 2
Shirley Town 0
Stourbridge U14 1

Lucas Muckley's second-half goal, which deflected off a defender, proved decisive in this cup clash.

Stourbridge improved when switching from 4-3-3 to 4-4-2 as they pressed higher up the pitch.

Sheffield 0
Stourbridge U15 0
(This cup-tie went to penalties before Stourbridge took the win.)

Defences were generally on top and the match was scoreless through extra time.

With other academy matches finishing a sizeable crowd watched the drama of the shoot-out and Stour keeper Max Baker made the crucial save as his side went through to the next round.

Stourbridge U15B 5
Halesowen Harriers 3
Adam Tranter's treble in the blazing heat helped Stourbridge to victory. Kyle Glaze notched two fine goals.

Stourbridge U16 North 3
Worcester 2
Stourbridge played well and controlled the majority of the game.

Leading 3-2 with 10 minutes to play, they came under increasing Worcester pressure.

But the defence held firm to go on to the cup quarter-finals.

Glassboys saved by last-gasp penalty

Arlesey Town 1 Stourbridge 1

STOURBRIDGE needed a hotly disputed last-gasp penalty by Sean Geddes to salvage a point from their first ever visit to Arlesey Town.

A hard, bobbly pitch was not conducive to good football and the first half was a poor spectacle.

The Bedfordshire hosts, who came into the game on the back of a five-match unbeaten run, almost took the lead in the first minute but the shot went wide.

Stourbridge made little headway in the first 45 minutes, but nearly went ahead in the 13th minute when a hopeful ball forward from Drew Canavan was pursued by new signing Marcus Palmer. The bounce off the surface caught out defender Ryan Frater and also deceived home keeper Nick Bussey.

Palmer did well to keep the ball in play, but from close to the left byline he was unable to find the net from a tight angle with Bussey recovering to smother the ball.

A better second half followed and Stourbridge were first to threaten a minute after the restart with Canavan striking a 25-yard shot that drew a save from Bussey down to his right.

However, two minutes later Gary Hackett's men found themselves trailing with a goal out of nothing for the home side. Aston Goss fed the ball inside from the right to Patrick, who hit a crisp low shot from outside the box past the dive of Lewis Solly.

The Glassboys lost Sam Smith through injury with Jamie Oliver taking his place at the heart of the defence.

On the hour mark they almost drew level when Sam Rock attacked the left-hand side of the box and hit a low shot that Bussey looked to have covered at his near post, but the ball squirmed through his fingers and hit the foot of the upright and he scrambled the rebound out for a corner under pressure from Palmer.

Arlesey returned onto the attack three minutes later from a Bussey goal-kick with Joel Mason in the middle threading the ball through into the run of Patrick whose low shot was saved by the diving Solly.

Stourbridge responded with Paul McCone heading over from a Geddes corner, but Arlesey went close to extending their advantage on four occasions.

With the clock ticking down Goss slipped the ball through to Mason who fired his angled shot into the side-netting, but in stoppage time the Glassboys were awarded a penalty for a push in the back on Bennett by Derek Brown.

The hosts protested in vain it had been committed outside the area and Geddes made no mistake from his spot-kick to secure a point for Stourbridge and also to become the Glassboys' joint leading scorer this season with 16 goals.

Record-breaking athlete
Nancy Hitchmough

Star Nancy sets two new records

ATHLETE Nancy Hitchmough set two women's 60-age group records at the British Masters indoors championship in London.

The Dudley and Stourbridge Harriers star ran with younger age groups in the 1500m at the weekend.

She took nearly five seconds of the existing record, finishing second in the race in a time of five minutes 17.93 seconds.

The following day, racing in the W60 800m, Hitchmough led from start to finish.

Hitchmough won in a time of 2min 37.67sec, knocking three seconds off the previous record.

She is now looking forward to the Masters World Championships being held in Finland next month.

New-boys are set to take bow

DUDLEY Heathens hand a debut to three new signings when they launch the new season with a Staffordshire Cup clash against Stoke at Monmore Green on Tuesday.

Byron Bekker, James White-Williams and Dan Greenwood were all recruited during the winter to join the existing team members, captain Adam Roynon, Ashley Morris, Tom Perry and Darryl Ritchings.

And team boss Will Pottinger is hoping all three can make a flying start against the Potters (7.30pm) and put together a good first leg lead ready for the return at Loomer Road on Saturday, April 14.

He said: "It would be a great way to start the season for us to win against Stoke."

Investigation pledge
after title bout fiasco

THE British Boxing Board of Control has promised a full investigation after the main bout at Wolverhampton Civic Hall saw round one end early with challenger Enzo Maccarinelli apparently out on his feet.

But he ripped the British cruiserweight title crown from Shane McPhilbin with a unanimous points win.

That didn't look likely when McPhilbin landed a thumping left hook which left Maccarinelli head-first on the bottom rope. He answered the count on unsteady legs but was cleared to continue when timekeeper Martin Fallon sounded the bell with 47 seconds of the round remaining.

Fighters put it on the line all night long in support of the two title bouts.

There were stoppage wins for Walsall's Christopher Keane, Stafford's Grant Cunningham, Brierley Hill's Thomas Costello, Dudley's Dean Anderson and Stourbridge's Steven Pearce.

Walsall's Christopher Keane, Stafford's Grant Cunningham, Brierley Hill's Kyle Spencer and Halesowen's Zak the Ripper – real name Saquib Amir – all scored points wins.

Gethin took out Hungarian visitor Csaba Torma in two rounds. The two-time English lightweight champion dropped his opponent with a left hook to the body and bloodied his nose before the finish, which came one minute and 59 seconds into round two.

Costello looked excellent in finishing his Slovakian opponent, Lubomir Wejs, in the first round after just two minutes and 10 seconds.

Anderson worked to the body to score a stoppage against fellow lightweight

by Craig Birch

'Rockin' Robin Deakin, exactly two minutes into the second round. Deakin had answered with little in return.

Pearce took his first inside the distance win in just his second professional fight.

He had already put Matt Seawright flat on his face before the finish, 43 seconds into round three.

A left hook from Pearce left Seawright reeling long enough to receive another barrage to end the contest.

Keane, a senior ABA national amateur champion in 2009, was in for six rounds with Lithuania's Remigijus Ziauskas after 15 months of ring rust. But the cruiserweight took a points win.

Stafford fighter Cunningham beat the ever-game Ryan Clark on points.

Spencer, took a points decision over Rick Boulter.

In the final bout, Zak the Ripper beat Walsall's 43-year-old Delroy Spencer on points.

Football academy just for the girls

STOURBRIDGE College is to launch a new football academy for girls this autumn – aimed at providing a “level playing field” for women in sport.

The college believes the initiative will be the first soccer academy solely for girls in the region.

The academy, to be launched in September, will be based at the college's new Centre of Sporting Excellence at Brintons Field in Zortec Avenue, Kidderminster.

The college is investing a total of around £1m in the centre after acquiring the 40-acre site, formerly owned by Brintons Carpets.

The land is now home to academies for golfing and boxing, as well as football, and the college is refurbishing the building there ready for the autumn term.

College staff are encouraging female school leavers who are currently playing the game to take up a position on a sports course.

The college says it will allow girls to continue with their education and bag a qualification while being able to play football at the same time.

Stella Raphael-Reeves, director of sporting excellence at Stourbridge College, said: “We want to provide a level playing field for women in sport and are looking for players to join us from September.”

Karate ace Tony makes grade again

STOURBRIDGE karate ace Tony Harvey has won his third dan black belt – 16 years after his last grade award.

Harvey runs Stourbridge Wado Ryu Karate with fellow instructor Paul Leonard. The 44-year-old received his award from Brian Seabright, seventh dan of the British Karate Association at their headquarters in Manchester.

“He has spent the last 16 years dedicated to teaching others,” said Leonard.

“Proof that it is not all about obtaining your next grade as quickly as possible but more about improving one's skill level and the dedication to the life study of ancient art.”

Along with Harvey, 31-year-old Stacey Hingley was also awarded her first dan black belt by the BKA.

Glassboys go for glory and Callum

by Craig Birch

STOURBRIDGE'S big clash with Evo-Stik Southern Premier League leaders Brackley is just the start of the fun at the War Memorial Ground this weekend.

The club will host their community day before Saturday's game, where Gary Hackett's men could climb into a play-off place with victory.

All children will go in free to the game, while general admission is just £5 for the top-of-the-table showdown between the promotion rivals.

Before the match, fans are being urged to get to the ground for 1pm and take in the entertainment the Glassboys have laid on for the weekend.

Outside the ground, there will be a tombola, fairground stalls, inflatable slides and a bouncy castle, with the forecast good for warm weather.

Then, on the Sunday, Stourbridge Old Boys will face Aston Villa All Stars at 2pm in a charity game to raise funds for Callum Loveridge.

Callum broke four bones in his neck and severed his spinal chord after a BMX bike stunt which went tragically wrong two years ago.

The teenager, from Norton, was left paralysed from the neck down.

The proceeds from the game will be donated to him.

Manage

Turning out for Stourbridge will be the club's manager Hackett, his assistant Jon Ford, coach Mark Clifton and board member Andy Bullingham.

Adam Bastable will play for and manage the Glassboys side with Ken McNaught, president of the Aston Villa Former Players association, in the away dugout.

McNaught was a member of Villa's 1982 European Cup winning team and teammates Gordon Cowans, Colin Gibson, Tony Morley and Des Bremner will play.

Others featuring for Villa are former England internationals Lee Hendrie and Mark Walters, along with Republic of Ireland midfielder Gareth Farrelly.

Admission is also £5 and supporters are urged to get to the ground for midday where, again, there will be stalls and a BMX exhibition.

Strugglers make Lye work hard for victory

Bustleholme 1 Lye Town 2
GOALS from Damian Whitcombe and Stuart Lewis gave Lye Town victory at West Midlands Premier League strugglers Bustleholme.

But, for the opening half-hour, any neutral spectator would have struggled to identify the team in the bottom three.

There was plenty of good football played in the middle of the park, but goalmouth action was rare.

The second-half was much the same until a Lye corner somehow found its way to the back post, where Whitcombe headed into the roof of the net.

Bustleholme pushed forward to find an equaliser and, in the hard-working Ishmail Harris, looked like they could get back into it.

But, as Lye cleared their lines, a hopeful punt saw home defender Phil Eilersby get the ball caught under his feet and Lewis finished at the second attempt past goalkeeper Matt Martin.

Bustleholme pulled one back with a smart finish from substitute Howard Baker but Lye held out.

Welborn power keeps the title

POWER beat skill to ensure that Dudley's Jason Welborn is still the Midlands welterweight champion after a fifth-round stoppage over Coventry's James Flinn.

After relying on the skills that had taken him to a national ABA senior semi-final, the strength of Welborn told at Wolverhampton Civic Hall.

A right hand did the damage and although Flinn withstood an onslaught he then got caught with the same shot.

PULSATING WIN STAVES OFF DROP

STOURBRIDGE SAXONS preserved their National One status for another week by taking their first victory of 2012.

They edged out their visitors by four points in a thrilling Stourton Park tussle.

A brilliant first-half display saw them open up an 18-3 interval lead before the Tigers cut loose after the break.

Alistair Bressington kicked an eighth-minute penalty for Saxons before livewire scrum-half Peter White darted to within five metres of the line after taking a tap penalty.

Matt Riley dragged a penalty wide for the visitors and the Saxons continued to turn the screw when they bagged their first try on 24 minutes.

A powerful run by the inspirational Ben Barkley almost broke the line but instead it was fly-half Chris Reakes who muscled over.

Dominant

Riley reduced the arrears with a penalty four minutes later but Park then had second row Louis McGowan yellow carded and Bressington slotted over the resulting penalty.

A man up, the Saxons were even more dominant and when a wayward Tigers pass landed in the arms of Adam Sturdy, they broke for their second try.

Back row pair Alex Rovira and Joe Garner were instrumental; Nathan Bressington was stopped just short but hooker Jordan Page finished things off as he plunged over.

Bressington's conversion opened up a 15-point interval lead.

But the visitors were back in contention within 40 seconds of the restart when flying winger Jamie Harrison broke from halfway before cutting inside to score beneath the posts.

Stourbridge 33
Sedgley Park 29

That set the agenda for a thrilling second half with each side bidding to outdo the other.

Another brilliant break from Barkley led to a third Saxons try, fellow centre Tom Jarvis scampering the final few metres to the line.

McGowan gained his revenge for the earlier yellow card by powering over before another White break allowed Bressington to finish things off with a bonus Stourbridge try on 64 minutes.

But back came the visitors when replacement prop Dan Birchall muscled over five minutes later to edge to within eight points.

Bressington slotted over a penalty four minutes from the end to take his personal tally to 18 points but flanker David Livesey went through for a fourth Sedgley Park try.

Riley's conversion closed the gap to four points and the sin-binning of Saxons second row Nile Dacres just added to the drama.

But Neil Mitchell's men were not to be denied and postponed the drop.

Winning run comes to an end

Handsworth 31
Stourbridge Lions 13

AFTER a six-game winning run, the Lions lost their league game at Handsworth, who lie fourth.

With the National Vase semi-final in two weeks' time and with several injured players rested, it was a much-changed Lions side.

Despite this, Stour controlled the game playing uphill and led 3-0 with a penalty from Harry Wainwright, which was scant reward for some diving play from the forwards and enterprising moves in the backs.

However, several unforced errors led to three Handsworth tries in eight minutes, two converted. A penalty meant Stour turned round 19-6 down.

Stour pressed strongly in the first 20 minutes with wing Arron Clifford and young lock Liam Round both held up on the line.

But then Handsworth scored again after 20 minutes and landed a converted try 10 minutes later.

The Lions had the last word with Paul Harper-Smith scoring and Wainwright converting.
